Greece To Ban Shipments For Red Countries

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—An agreement between the U. S. and Greek governments— independent of a similar move announced by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.)—has been disclosed in the drive to cut off free world trade with Iron Curtain countries.

An American official said the Greek government within the past 10 days had agreed to ban such shipments by Greek ships flying the Greek flag. The Greek government decree, it was understood, would not affect Greek-owned ships which sail under the colors of other countries.

This disclosure last night came in the wake of McCarthy's announcement to a news conference Saturday that his Senate investigations subcommittee staff had negotiated an agreement with the Greek owners of 242 merchant ships to break off all trade with North Korea and Communist China.

Hearing Called

McCarthy mentioned the Greek government decree then, but he said it had yet to be ratified by the Greek Parliament. And he said his action went "far beyond" it.

McCarthy's subcommittee today called a hearing on Iron Curtain trading, but the inquiry appeared to have been bottled by McCarthy's announcement of the agreement with the ship owners. Previous plans had been to stress activities of the Greek-owned ships. Summoned as witnesses were Harold E. Stassen, director of the Mutual Security Administration, and Frank C. Nash, assistant secretary.

Wreck Damage Over Million

ERIE, Pa. (AP)—New York Central Railroad officials estimated today that property damage alone will total more than one million dollars in a triple train crash which killed 21 passengers and injured about 150.

After a 10-hour rest, wrecking crews resumed work today to clear the twisted wreckage of two passenger trains and a freight.

Two tracks on the railroad's main east-west line have been opened to traffic. Officials hope to have all tracks restored by tomorrow night.

Only one of the 21 persons killed in the pileup late Friday night just inside Pennsylvania, four miles east of Conneaut, O., is unidentified. The victim is a woman, about 30 years old.

More than 60 of the injured remain in hospitals here and in Ash-tabula, O., and Conneaut. Three are in serious condition. They are Harold Ballman, Cincinnati, O.; Mrs. Elsa Dickout, Kenmore, N. Y.; and Clayton Miller, Middlebury, Ind.

After a routine probe, the FBI ruled out any possibility of sabotage.

The New York Central said the wreck resulted from an almost unbelievable set of circumstances. Two passenger trains—Westbound No. 5 Buffalo to Chicago and East-bound No. 12 the Southwestern Limited—were about to pass at the same time two freight trains were passing on the other tracks.

House To Vote Wednesday On Offshore Lands

By TEX EASLEY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Legislation to establish the coastal states' title to the oil-rich submerged lands off their shores was called up for House debate today with passage, probably on Wednesday, a virtual certainty.

Proponents of the bill contend it would ratify what had been accepted for 150 years—state ownership of the submerged lands, often mistakenly termed tidelands. Opponents denounce it as a giant steal of perhaps 40 billion dollars.

The Supreme Court held in 1947 that the federal government holds dominion and power over the lands involved in the case of California. It did not use the word title. Later the court made similar rulings on Texas and Louisiana.

Eisenhower Approves

Former President Truman twice vetoed legislation to give the states title to the submerged lands, and shortly before leaving office he declared them to be a naval petroleum reserve. During the campaign, President Eisenhower said he would have signed the bills Truman vetoed—a position he has since reaffirmed.

The Senate plans to start debate on its own bill, differing somewhat from the House version, on Wednesday. Republican Leader Taft of Ohio has said it may require 10 days of debate there.

The House bill would:

1. Declare the states have title to the lands beneath their marginal seas within their historic boundaries—three miles except on the Texas and Florida Gulf Coasts, where it would be 10½ miles.

2. Authorize the states to develop the natural resources of these

Reds In Italy On One-Day Strike

By JAMES M. LONG

ROME (AP)—Italy's angered Communist party, outvoted and out-slugged in a riot-ridden legislative week end, ordered its huge Italian Federation of Labor CGIL out on a 16-hour nation-wide strike today.

The Red-bossed labor federation decreed the walkout as an "indignation" demonstration against Senate approval yesterday of the government's new election law. The bill already had cleared the lower house of Parliament and becomes law after it is signed by President Luigi Einaudi and is published.

The strike tied up regular street-car and bus services, forcing thousands to walk to work. Police hurriedly organized emergency services, pressing Army trucks into operation.

Communists in Rome stoned strike-breaking streetcars but no injuries were reported.

Gas was ordered cut off from homes for 24 hours.

The Italian Free Confederation of Labor CISL and other independent unions did not participate in the walkout, which the CISL described as "purely political."

Tough Interior Minister Mario Scelba mustered his crack battalions of anti-riot police and assured Prime Minister Alcide De Gasperi that any Communist disturbances over the new law would be "strongly repressed."

Father Admits He Killed Son Because Child, 5, Was Ill

CLIFTON, N. J. (AP)—A tavern and hotel owner has admitted killing his 5-year-old son because he could "not stand to see him suffer any longer" from cerebral palsy.

Police arrested the father, Albert J. Sell, 44, when they found him in a parked car at a deserted spot near a road yesterday. The body of the black-haired, brown-eyed boy was in the back.

"I shot my boy. He's in the back seat there. I knew the police would find me," Sell was quoted as saying to the officers. Sell will be arraigned today on a murder charge.

The boy, Albert Jr., had been shot through the head. A victim of cerebral palsy since birth, the boy never had been able to talk and had difficulty walking.

Senator Asks Full Report On Defense

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash.), saying the U. S. seems to have "a distinct military deficit" as compared with Russia, has urged President Eisenhower to give the nation a full report on comparative strength of the two nations.

Red Offer To Reopen Truce Talks Studied

Investigation Begun In Fire That Took 32 Lives

LARGO, Fla. (AP)—Three agencies are investigating the wind-swept fire that destroyed a one-story frame nursing home yesterday, taking the lives of 32 elderly patients and a valiant nurse who tried to save them.

Investigations were started today by the state fire marshal, the State Hotel Commission and Sheriff Sid Saunders.

Twenty-five patients were saved as neighbors turned out barefooted and in night clothes to back up the rescue efforts of the owners, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Littlefield. Fire companies from Largo and Clearwater also came quickly, but within half an hour the sprawling wooden structure was doomed.

Many Died In Bed

The tragedy cost 34 lives in all. Angus D. Smith, Pinellas County welfare director, was killed in an automobile collision while driving three patients to a hospital.

Many of the victims died in their beds, unaware of the danger that suddenly roared at them about 3:30 on a chilly Sabbath morning.

Of those who gained consciousness, some were too panicky to follow directions; some were too feeble-minded and some too old and stubborn.

"If they had done what I told them they would all have gotten out," Littlefield said in a tired voice.

Eyewitness Stories

The Littlefields were sleeping in the home with the patients. Littlefield said he was awakened by the screams of a woman. He tried to fight the flames with fire extinguishers, saw he was losing, and began waking up patients and trying to get them out.

Mrs. Littlefield ran outside, screaming for help, and collapsed with a heart attack. She is in serious condition.

"One man was sound asleep and he clung to the door and fought me while I tried to get him out," said Mrs. Aletha Her-ring, who lives across the road.

"They were just like children—they didn't want to be removed from their warm beds," said another neighbor, T. R. Hasty, who carried old people out till he was almost cut off by the raging flames.

Cause Undetermined

However, some of the patients themselves helped others escape. Will Hardin, 76, Palm Harbor, said: "I carried out Gus Simonson, who is 94 years old. He had two canes and he could walk just a little."

Mrs. Frank Colley of Clearwater helped get two out.

Mrs. Gertrude Warnick, 55, a nurse, brought one woman out, returned to the flame-swept building and did not come out again.

Cause of the fire remains a mystery. Fire Chief Peter Treola of Clearwater said preliminary checks led him to believe the blaze started near the kitchen and supply room. Littlefield said he thought the fire began in a front bedroom.

The patients ranged in age from 45 to 98, with most of them above 65. Many were old age pensioners, getting a little additional welfare help from Pinellas County. Others were mental cases.

Governor Signs Bill For Michigan Pipeline

LANSING (AP)—Legislation permitting construction of the world's second largest pipeline to carry Canadian oil across Michigan was signed into law by Gov. Williams today.

The measure authorizes the State Conservation Commission to grant easements for the laying of the pipeline across state land and under the Straits of Mackinac.

It will permit the Lakehead Pipeline Co. to extend a pipeline now ending at Superior, Wis., across the Upper Peninsula, under the Straits of Mackinac and through northeastern Michigan to Port Huron where it will go into Canada at Sarnia, Ont.

The route across Michigan is expected to cost $60,000,000.

The governor said the Michigan Public Service Commission is expected to issue a permit for the pipeline construction within a few days.

"The construction of the pipeline, permitted under this legislation," Williams said, "is but another step in the joint defense effort of the American and Canadian governments, which have long recognized the need for crude oil transportation from northwest Canadian oil fields."

"The effect of such a project should soon be evident in a general stimulus to our northern economy as well as providing Michigan refineries with an additional source of supply of crude oil."

More Combat Pay Advocated

WASHINGTON (AP)—A five-man citizens' commission has recommended to the Defense Department that combat bonuses be increased for men under hostile fire and that some other extra pay be reduced.

The commission was headed by Lewis L. Strauss, New York financier. It reported to Secretary of Defense Wilson, who made the report public Saturday and sent it on to the Senate armed services committee, which asked that the study be made.

The commission also recommended that base pay in the armed services be placed on a sliding scale geared to the government's cost of living index.

It suggested that combat pay be increased from the present $45 a month to $50, and that slight pay be taken away from most officers and men who do not possess technical skills. The commission estimated that he changes would save more than 200 million dollars a year.

Strangler May Strike Tonight

LONDON (AP)—Urgent new warnings went out today to all Britain's police that London's sex-crazed strangler may strike again at tonight's full moon. Already investigators had found the remains of six victims—all women—and what may be the shattered skull of a seventh.

Police believe the murders show a pattern of moon madness that could bring another slaying tonight.

They pursued a theory that the killer at the time of the full moon goes berserk, entices the women into some secluded place, strangles them and assaults them sexually.

Baffled Scotland Yard experts ordered the nation-wide search for the killer redoubled. They also ordered a speedup in the dismantling of the dingy West London tenement house where the victims were found.

The remains of two bodies and possibly of a third were dug out of the tiny garden of the Notting Hill horror house during the week end. Another was found under the floor boards of the ground floor apartment and three more, believed the killer's most recent victims, had been hidden in a papered-over alcove.

Police speculated that the murderer used the alcove as a halfway house to store the bodies until he could bury them. For that reason, they said, more corpses still may be around the house or in the garden.

One of Britain's biggest police nets was out for John Reginald Christie, 55-year-old trucking clerk who had rented the murder flat for a number of years. His wife was among the victims.

Reuther Urges Revision Of T-H

WASHINGTON (AP)—CIO President Walter Reuther today asked Congress for "drastic" changes in the Taft-Hartley labor law and quoted freely from President Eisenhower's campaign speeches to make his points.

Reuther said the act should be wiped clean of all its injunction provisions. He quoted the President as having said that injunctions "will not settle the underlying fundamental problems which cause a strike."

Reuther's testimony was prepared for the Senate labor committee, now in the second week of its hearings on revision of the 1947 act.

Injunctions are court orders which, if not obeyed, can bring heavy fines or imprisonment.

The Taft-Hartley act, Reuther said, "puts its faith on labor injunctions to insure labor peace" and is "falsely based" on a belief that "the power of the courts is a fit substitute for free collective bargaining."

"As President Eisenhower has said so well," Reuther declared, "there are worse things than a strike and one of those things" is the loss of freedom attendant upon unjustified governmental intervention in labor-management situations.

The nation, Reuther said, is never without a remedy "in the unlikely event that a crisis might result" from a serious strike.

Ill In Hospital, Woman Is Charged With Embezzlement

IRON MOUNTAIN—Mrs. Dora E. Goggin, 51, of Goodman, who was admitted on March 19 to Memorial hospital for treatment of injuries suffered in a fall, is in technical custody at the hospital, it was announced Saturday by Harry White, Marinette county district attorney, who said she has been charged with the embezzlement of $6,422.33 from the Citizens Bank of Goodman.

The warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Goggin on the embezzlement charge was issued Saturday by White, who turned it over to Sheriff James Spangler, of Marinette county. The latter said the warrant had been turned over to Sheriff Amedeo Pasavento, of Iron Mountain, who will serve it on Mrs. Goggin when her condition permits her discharge from the hospital.

State bank examiners allegedly found irregularities in the accounts of Mrs. Goggin, who had worked at the bank for the last 11 years. She began work in 1942 as a teller, bookkeeper and clerk.

Proposal For Exchanging Sick POWs Accepted

TOKYO (AP)—Red China Premier Chou En-Lai tonight offered a compromise solution to the knotty problem of repatriating Korean War prisoners—the only issue blocking an armistice agreement.

It was the first break in the Reds' previously-unyielding demands that all prisoners be returned.

Chou proposed that both sides return those prisoners who insist on going home and hand over the others to a neutral state "to insure a just solution to the question of their repatriation."

He did not propose a neutral state by name, presumably leaving that question to be decided at the armistice site of Panmunjom.

The United Nations walked away from Panmunjom last fall after telling the Reds to accept the principle of giving prisoners their choice of returning home—or come up with an acceptable solution.

Chou's offer—similar to plans advanced in the United Nations Assembly—came in a broadcast, heard here, over the Communist Peiping radio.

Gen. Mark Clark, U. N. Far East commander, was not immediately available for comment.

By JOHN RANDOLPH

TOKYO (AP)—The next move is up to the United Nations on a Communist offer to trade sick and wounded Korean War prisoners and reopen the suspended truce talks.

The U. N. is studying it cautiously and has given no indication of when it will answer.

In a mild 300-word letter Saturday, the Reds said they accept a U. N. proposal of Feb. 22 to exchange ailing POWs. They also asked the U. N. to resume armistice talks.

The truce talks—started in July, 1951—finally broke down Oct. 8, 1952, over a U. N. demand that prisoners be given a choice whether they want to return to their homelands.

Are Reds Sincere?

The letter was the first Red move since, and it set off a welter of wondering.

Were the Communists sincere—would they go through with an actual exchange?

Would this be a package deal—is reopening of the truce talks necessary before the Reds will swap sick and wounded POWs?

What's behind it—perhaps some hidden gimmick to benefit the Reds?

The matter of sincerity was met with a "wait and see" attitude here, in Washington and other world capitals, stung before by apparently genuine Red offers of peace.

"Wait and See"

At New Delhi, home of the Indian government that has often tried the role of East-West peacemaker, officials said privately: "We must wait and see. The world has been disappointed too often already."

The question of a package deal was not answered by the Reds, but the U. N. obviously viewed the

Navigation Opens Here As First Ore Boat Docks

Capping 23 years sailing on the lakes for Inland Steel with his fifth voyage as a captain, Thomas A. Olson of Chicago, once of Kristiansand, Norway, brought the season's first ore boat, the E. J. Block, alongside Ore Dock No. 6 at 7:45 this morning.

The passage into the harbor was "the easiest I've ever seen around Escanaba," said Captain Olson, who began his career on the lakes as a seaman. Last season he was first mate on the Wilford Sykes.

"Everything went first class," the captain said. "As a matter of fact I expected plenty of trouble coming in—I didn't expect we'd be in until this afternoon."

The E. J. Block, coming from Indiana Harbor, Indiana, met the Coast Guard cutter Sundew at Minneapolis Shoals and was escorted in.

Captain Olson reported a few fields of ice around Minneapolis Shoals. He said he slackened speed but now felt it had been unnecessary, the ice was so honeycombed.

"I just got this ship to sail this year," Captain Olson said of the E. J. Block, which, with its purple body, gleaming white superstructure, black-and-red striped smokestack and yellow masts, made a sparkling picture in the morning sunlight, standing alongside the ore-stained purple of Dock No. 6. The boat was newly painted during the winter, said Captain Olson who got his own brand of winter reconditioning in St. Petersburg, Fla., where he said he spends two or three months every year.

"How did it feel to have his first command?" a reporter asked the captain. "O. K.," he said with a beaming smile.

The E. J. Block, one of four "Block" boats sailing the lakes for Inland Steel, "will leave this afternoon, I expect," said Captain Olson. She will load to her winter draft of 10,000 tons, he revealed. Summer draft is 12,000 tons.

Average loading time is four to five hours, the captain stated.

The cargo will go to Indiana Harbor, according to the captain, who said the trip will take about 24 hours. He explained the boat will not go back and forth between Escanaba and Indiana Harbor every trip, but will alternate Escanaba with other ore ports, its next trip being possibly to Marquette.

The captain estimated the next boat due here, the Joseph Block, was about 12 hours behind him, the C&NW reported. That would make the Joseph Block due here about 7 or 8 tonight, the railroad said.

The C&NW said there would be about 75 men at work on the docks today, an increase of about 49 over last week, when only 26 men were at work.

Budget $81,000 For U. P. Bureau

The Upper Peninsula Development Bureau Saturday looked forward to ending its fiscal year with all obligations paid and a small balance.

Members of the executive committee approved expenditures of $81,000 for 1953.

A total of $43,205 was earmarked for advertising—including $23,300 for printing 30,000 copies of the Lure Book and $1,380 for newspaper "ads."

Another $500 will be expended for films and photographs, while $876 will be spent for publicity purposes.

A general air of optimism prevailed at the Marquette meeting because of the favorable budget report—which showed that income will be slightly above outgo—and also because of realization that more and more Upper Peninsula organizations and individuals are actively supporting the Bureau.

$48,811 From Lure Book

It was revealed that, of the 1953 income, $48,811 will be received through advertising in the Lure Book, from county, city, village and township contributions and from the purchase of individual memberships.

Seven hundred and seventy-eight sources of income were listed.

The Bureau's executive committee also:

1. Promised cooperation to the Ishpeming Ski Club and U. S. Ski Association in promoting 1954 ski jumping tournaments and in dedication of the national ski museum in Ishpeming.

2. Gave its approval to the Upper Peninsula State Fair Board request that it help prepare and man an exhibit of U. P. made products at the 1953 fair in August.

3. Pledged cooperation to Hiawatha Council, Boy Scouts of America, in providing suitable material for Boy Scout delegates to the national jamboree in Santa Ana, Calif.

4. Learned that copies of the Lure Book will be in the Bureau's office, ready for distribution, between April 1 and 20.

U. P. Sportsmen Elect Rouman To MUCC Board

James L. Rouman, president of the Delta County Sportsman's club, was elected a director of Michigan United Conservation Clubs at the district meeting held at the Sherman Hotel Sunday afternoon. Rouman, one of three representing district 19, will replace Harold Richards of Caspian, who is retiring in June.

With some 30 delegates and sportsmen from seven Upper Peninsula clubs in attendance there were some lively discussions over the 22 resolutions offered. Two were tabled, 14 adopted and the balance voted down.

Approved resolutions include those to raise non-resident game and fishing licenses to levels comparable with Wisconsin, plant more trout in the peninsula, extend the rabbit season through March, permit spearing of wall-eyes on designated lakes.

The archery season on deer would be moved up five days earlier by another resolution approved as was a move for reciprocal license fees between Michigan and Wisconsin. The sportsmen also approved a move to allow heavier trappers to keep some accidentally caught muskrats and one to allow the taking of any sex deer for camp use. They would oppose forcing the wife of a fisherman to buy a fishing license and seek to have beaver seasons on Michigan-Wisconsin boundary waters coincide.

The district meeting approved efforts to require licenses for Great Lakes fishing and to have the deer season opened on Saturday or on before November 15. Emergency control over Great Lakes waters, supervision and inspection power over commercial fishing gear and compulsory reports on commercial gear owned and operated also won support in the voting.

MUCC officials present at the meeting were: Howard Brown, Bessemer, a vice president of the state-wide organization; George Woods, Stambaugh, District 19 field representative and Francis B. Crique, St. Ignace, District 18 field representative.

In addition, there were representatives of the game, fish, deer investigations and enforcement divisions of the conservation department. The department men served as resource persons, answering questions of a technical nature.

Clarence Moreau, president of the Walleye Protective Association, was chairman of the meeting.

Clubs represented at the meeting were the Ironwood Conservation Club, the Indian Head Conservation Club of Bessemer, Iron County Sportsmen's Club, Delta County Sportsmen's Club, Walleye Protective Association of Delta County and the Mackinac County Club.

Grass Fire Hazard Increases; Several Fires Over Weekend

Sunshine and high winds have dried grass and brush lands in the Escanaba area and the fire hazard in open country is high. It was reported today by city firemen and Michigan conservation officers.

There were seven grass fires in Escanaba over the weekend, and three fires outside the city limits that blackened more than 50 acres. At Danforth Sunday afternoon a grass fire for a time threatened farm buildings until it was brought under control by Escanaba and conservation fire fighters.

Saturday there was a large grass fire west of the city, and on Friday a fire covered a large grasslands area near the village of Garden.

Conservation officers called upon persons to be careful with fire in grassy areas, although there is still some ice and snow in the woods.

Nelson Winner In Court Suit

A Circuit Court jury found in favor of Louis Nelson, Escanaba contractor, this morning in Nelson's suit against Briton Hall of Escanaba. Judge Glenn W. Jackson of Gladstone presided.

Nelson was awarded $420.26 and court costs. The amount of costs is not yet determined. The $420.26 figure is $393.97 plus $26.29 interest.

Nelson had asked $571.56. A. W. Strom, his attorney, said this morning.

In testimony under oath Friday, Hall said he was well satisfied with the construction of a fireplace Nelson built him. He said also he was well satisfied with a chimney Nelson built him. He said the chimney had a poor draft but he had never been able to determine the reason for that.

Al Brandt, Escanaba contractor, called by Hall as a contracting expert, declared he could find no fault with the construction of the chimney. Asked how much he could build a chimney for, he said $75, adding that construction in cold weather would be higher, however, because it is necessary to heat sand, water and bricks.

In a written document filed before suit began, Hall said he had agreed to pay Nelson $45 for a chimney.

Ernest Fosterling, Maple Ridge, was chairman of the jury. Other jurors were Josephine Decker, Escanaba; Anna Molloy, Escanaba; Mrs. Ruth Hamilton, Gladstone; Agnes Hupy, Gladstone; Mrs. Gloria Buntjer, Ensign; Veronica Lott, Escanaba; Gordon Barbeaux, Fairbanks; Helen Maude La Motte, Garden; Dorothy Zimmel, Gladstone; Pearl C. Schram, Gladstone; and Lillian Olsen, Ensign.

Hall was represented by McGinn and Fitzharris.

Set Up Scholarship To Honor Hank Williams Memory Tomorrow

... America's myriad lovers of hillbilly music, so-called, will honor the memory of the late Hank Williams tomorrow. Williams was the foremost performer in the hillbilly vein until heart disease ended his career. New Year's Day, Williams' writing successes include such popular songs as JAMBALAYA and YOUR CHEATIN' HEART, though he was perhaps best known for writing and recording a prophetic tune titled, I'LL NEVER GET OUT OF THIS WORLD ALIVE.

AMERICAN FOLK PUBLICATIONS, INC., publishers of COUNTRY SONG ROUNDUP, is establishing the HANK WILLIAMS' MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP at the University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, to be awarded annually to a deserving music student, boy or girl. The recipient will be chosen by the University's Scholarship Committee. Hundreds of radio stations are dedicating programs to Williams' memory tomorrow and the current issue of COUNTRY SONG ROUNDUP No. 24 features his story ... distributed in this area by SMITH NEWS AGENCY. Ice All Rotted, Skipper Reports

"There's no comparison with other years," declared Lt. Robert Mackle, commanding officer of the Coast Guard cutter Sundew, this morning.

Mackle was speaking of the ice situation in the harbor. There's "no ice to speak of," Mackle said. "It's all rotted, what there is. It's just a matter of time and weather now."

He said the Sundew left Milwaukee yesterday morning and had an uneventful trip. It joined the E. J. Block, season's first ore boat, near Minneapolis Shoals about midnight last night.

When it leaves here the Sundew will take a crew to Minneapolis Shoals lighthouse, Mackle said.

Mackle is a veteran of 12 years in the Coast Guard. He is a native of St. Louis, Mo.

Also along on the Sundew was Captain Dwight Dexter made the trip from headquarters in Cleveland "just to see how things were going," he said. He said the Coast

Former Resident Of Fayette Dies

Albert W. Kitts, a former Fayette resident, died March 24 in North Branch, Mich. after a short illness.

Mr. Kitts was born in Pentoga, Wis., on May 11, 1904. He leaves the following survivors: his wife, the former Ruth Paul, six sons and one daughter, two grandchildren, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Kitts, and two sisters.

Funeral services were held at St. Patrick's Church in Clifford, Mich., on March 27 at 10 a. m. Burial took place in St. Patrick's cemetery.

Guard had complaints from area fishermen that not enough notice was given in other years of ice-breaking operations. This year, he said, an especially strong attempt was being made to consider both the fishermen and the ore industry.

Dexter has been in the Coast Guard 26 years. "I really don't have any home town," he said. He felt folks would know him best as captain of the icebreaker Mackinaw. "I was in here the last two years on the Mackinaw," he explained.

Dickinson County Cities Join Upper Peninsula Fast Time Belt

WELCOME, Iron Mountain, Kingsford and Norway, to the fast time belt of the Upper Peninsula.

Whether all of Dickinson County will join the fast time belt has not yet been indicated but since the three cities in the county that comprise the major population have acted to that end, it is logical to assume that the entire county will follow suit.

Thus another advancement is made towards the objective of getting the entire Upper Peninsula on the same time plan. Major holdouts are Menominee County and Gogebic County, both for the reason that they are contiguous to Wisconsin cities that operate the year around on Central Standard Time.

We believe the Dickinson County cities will find their new time program to their liking. Fast time the year around has many advantages, not the least of which is an opportunity for greater traffic safety by that extra hour of evening light. Another is a savings in electric bills. The recreational advantages of Eastern Standard Time have long been recognized and need no further emphasis.

The proponents of slow time, no doubt, will be quick to point out that Delta County, a fast time area, last year had the worst traffic record in the entire Upper Peninsula. Note that we said fast time provides the opportunity for improved traffic safety. Most of our traffic deaths occurred after darkness and we have not yet solved that problem. Our traffic record, bad as it is, may conceivably have been even worse if we did not have fast time.

The ideal solution is fast time and slow drivers.

Farmer Appointed To Fair Board

THE appointment of Dean Jackson, Ontonagon County dairy farmer, to the Board of Managers of the Upper Peninsula State Fair by Gov. G. Mennen Williams restores to the board the viewpoint of the farmer in the planning and preparation of the big exposition.

With the resignation of John MacInnis as secretary-manager a few months ago, the board backed an agricultural man in its official family. The resignation of Victor Lemmer of Ironwood opened the way for the appointment of a farmer to the board, a move, individually, suggested by Mr. Lemmer in his letter of resignation to Gov. Williams.

'Operation Economy'

A SHORT time ago Chairman Tabor of the House Appropriations Committee announced the start of an intensive budget-cutting study. It has been given the name "Operation Economy," and will be conducted by business and management experts. Mr. Tabor says that its purpose is to squeeze every drop of water out of the next budget.

The idea is to put business principles into the fiscal affairs of government. That is one of the best pieces of news we harassed taxpayers have heard in many moons.

STILL IN THE SURREY ERA

A St. Louis business man reports he's having extreme difficulty rounding up 10 surreys with the fringe on top.

He has been forced to go to Paris to find two of the vehicles Grandpa and Grandma found so delightful 50 years ago. Very few left in America, reports the seeker who wants to use them for public rides in a St. Louis park.

Virtual extinction of the surrey would seem proof enough that the nation is motorized.

But casual survey would convince anyone our highways are better suited to surreys than to the millions of automobiles that have shoved the carriage into oblivion.

Though the surrey has passed from use, the thinking that has directed our highway program is only slowly leaving the "surrey age."

The sooner we start building and maintaining a Twentieth Century highway network, the sooner our automobiles will really be useful again.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—The new Republican justice department has started out by not pulling any punches regarding the prosecution of Republicans, including Republican congressmen.

As a result, Congressman Earnest Bramblett, Republican, of Pacific Grove, 11th District of California, faces grand jury action on charges made by this column last fall of taking kickbacks from his office staff.

The grand jury action is being ordered by another California Republican, Warren Olney, now assistant attorney general in charge of the criminal division, who as counsel for the California Crime Commission did more than any other one man to clean up crime in that state. Since coming to Washington, he has helped to crack down on one notorious figure in the California gambling world, Emilio Georgetti, whom the Democrats did nothing about. Olney also caused havoc in the Justice Department by asking the resignation of four Democrat lawyers in his criminal division who dragged their heels regarding Congressman Bramblett.

Ordinarily, Justice Department attorneys do not like to tangle with congressmen, let alone prosecute them. This writer supplied most of the evidence to the Justice Department in the case of ex-Congressman Parnell Thomas of New Jersey before it prosecuted, also part of the evidence regarding ex-Congressman Andrew May of Kentucky, and published the original kickback information regarding Congressman Walter Brehm of Ohio. All were convicted.

BRAMBLETT'S OPERATIONS

In the case of Bramblett, this column reported last fall that Mrs. Margaret Swanson, listed as working on the congressman's payroll from September 1949 to January 1951 never worked in his office. She drew the top salary in his office, $4,700, but did not work for the congressman either in Washington or in his home district in California. She is the wife of Irving B. Swanson, Republican clerk of the House of Representatives and a close friend of Bramblett's.

The question arose, therefore, as to why she drew this top salary, paid her by all the taxpayers supposedly for helping Bramblett's constituents, though she did no work for them.

Another secretary, Vivian de Witt, was approached by Bramblett with an offer to boost her salary from $3,400 to $5,000 a year provided she would pay him $5,000 cash in advance. She refused, and shortly thereafter left the congressman's employ.

Another secretary working for Congressman Bramblett, Mrs. Dee Bundy, was given a salary increase in January 1951 from $2,200 to $5,000. She denied giving any kickback, said her sudden increase was due to extra work. Her husband, incidentally, was also listed on the Bramblett payroll. Mrs. Bramblett also drew $3,400 a year though was seldom seen around the office.

The above information was turned over to the FBI by this columnist last fall, and the FBI, after a careful investigation, submitted the evidence to the Justice Department. There, lesser officials inherited from the Democratic administration, recommended against prosecution. Some of them may have reviewed the facts too hastily.

But at any rate they initiated the recommendation not to prosecute. These attorneys included Francis Walker, nephew of the late Jimmy Walker, mayor of New York; Justinus Gould, Fred Strine and Raymond Whearty.

Their new Republican chief, Warren Olney, however, himself a Californian and a Republican, reviewed the case against his fellow Republican and decided it should go to a grand jury.

PAULEY'S PRIVATE ISLAND

There's a political paradox that Harry Truman may not realize in the fact that he's chosen Cocoon Island, the private island of oilman Ed Pauley, for his Hawaiian vacation.

Pauley has always posed as the great political promoter of Harry S. Truman. And it's true that at the Chicago convention of 1944 it was big Ed who ran back and forth from the convention floor to a private office under the speakers' platform wangling key delegates to switch from Wallace to Truman.

But in 1948 it was a different story. After Truman got the 1948 nomination, Pauley actually discouraged friends from contributing, told them Truman couldn't possibly win, that their money would be thrown away.

Came Truman's surprise victory over Dewey, however, and big Ed was on deck immediately after election day with $65,000 of postdated checks, eagerly though belatedly climbing aboard the Truman bandwagon. In fact, he went to the White House personally to take credit for the checks, did not dwell on the fact that they were postdated.

It was partly because of Pauley's fast recovery right after election that Truman made an ambassadorial appointment that cost him plenty of headaches—Mayor William O'Dwyer of New York as ambassador to Mexico. Pauley was working on an oil concession with the Mexican government at that time, also wanted a U. S. government refinery. Ed Flynn, boss of the Bronx, also had interests in Mexico.

So they sold Truman on the idea of appointing O'Dwyer to this key post.

That's the inside story of how O'Dwyer went to Mexico—where he's been ever since—a story, incidentally, which the President probably doesn't know even today as he vacations on Pauley's private island.

Spring

Stalling French Frustrate Military Plans Of West

By FRED SPARKS

PARIS—(NEA)—Outside, the Seine mirrors the spring sun like acres of cheap jewelry. Along the quay lovers kiss.

A diplomat who's been around these parts for a generation turns away from the window and says:

"France is breaking my heart. She's like a beautiful dame you love madly but can't depend on. We had been discussing the molasses - slow rearming of Western Europe."

Nine out of 10 Americans I meet here, concerned with preparing against a possible Red push, says likewise.

Not blame France for: Not making a rugged effort to get strong.

Blocking German forces for out-of-date reasons. Stalling on new airbases and military installations.

How important are dragging French heels to you? It merely involves the safety of your soldier-son or draftable father.

Our country has brought hundreds of thousands of American boys to Europe to help build a defense line.

Without doubling the French Army, and arming an equal number of West Germans, who'll stop the several million Germans from strolling to the English Channel, even if we atomize every paving block in Moscow?

During war at present odds American boys in Europe could fight merely to get out. In the process thousands would be lost.

A reporter reads between the official lines, and I'll bet my portable if you had Generals Eisenhower and Ridgway, past and present commanders of Allied European armies, in for cocktails they'd say something like this:

"France really wants nothing to do with the defense of Western Europe. She'd like to be as neutral as Switzerland."

"If we really want German troops we'll have to tell the Germans go ahead - even if the French get sore."

Strangest twist in this heart-breaking affair is that any honest Frenchman will tell you the same thing. An old chum, a leading Parisian journalist, put it this way:

"My country is tired of armies and wars and 'defense' blocs. We wish we could build a bridge over France and let the Russians and you have your arguments without disturbing us. And, of course, we hate Germany more than we fear Russia."

Let us cut back: In 1948, when Russian greed became obvious to the pinkest parlor punk, Americans and the British (who have armed magnificently) talked "common defense to prevent invasion."

We figured if Ivan knew we could bloody his nose he'd think once or six times before marching.

The big sweat was how to get the French to agree to arming Germans.

They fear having Germans with guns in Europe like you fear having a saber toothed tiger in your bathroom.

First a North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) was formed and President Truman called Ike and said:

"Go away! We're damned if away from Columbia University to build it.

The politicians then said there already is a German Army—but a Communist German Army. They drafted the "European Defense Community" to mingle German soldiers, at battalion level, in a joint force to appease France's fear.

Almost every American and British military brain thinks this impractical, considering the army of interpreters needed.

The French are behind schedule supplying their own soldiers to NATO and are still crossing T's and dotting I's on EDC, even though John Foster Dulles practically cried: "Get on with the job!"

Many Anglo-American officers believe that even if a chipped EDC is passed the French will stall, stall, stall on details.

Why doesn't France (one-quarter Communist, one-quarter neutralist, one-quarter anti-EDC, one-quarter confused) speak out we'll lift a finger to rearm any Boche and we'll gamble on playing it alone."

Best guesses: Still conscious of her historic greatness, her colonial interests, she hates to admit (out loud—she no longer has the stomach for power politics. Such a frank stand might anger Congress and endanger future economic relief.

One Allied gentleman, with more stars on his shoulder than you have buttons on your vest, told me bitterly:

"The fastest way to rearm Germany is to distribute guns in the streets of Western Germany."

Meanwhile, the cafes are crowded and the horsechestnuts are beginning to bud on the Champs Elysees. Nobody can help loving beautiful France—but, boy, are the generals frustrated!

U.S. Airmen In Morocco Keeping Welcome Warm

MOROCCANS lay concrete tennis court at Sidi Slimane, U. S. Atom Bomber Base, T. Sgt. Richard J. Leapey of Sioux City, Ia., directs work paid for without congressional aid.

By DANIEL DE LUCE

RABAT, French Morocco—The Yanks are trying their best to keep their welcome warm in Morocco.

During two years in this strategic corner of Africa, they have altered some of the landscape with bulldozers and dotted the sky with giant bombers. Yet their friendly relations with nearly nine million polyglot inhabitants are virtually unchanged.

Homesickness is not unknown among 6,000 officers and men stationed here by the U. S. Air Force. Nobody, however, yells in their face, "American, go home!"

This agreeable status quo is in sharp contrast to recent developments in England, where resentment against 30,000 American airmen has been publicized.

French Were Prudent Reasons for the better conditions in Morocco are easy to find. One is that the French protectorate puts a ceiling on U. S. personnel.

Originally, American generals had wanted to bring in 20,000 airmen. The French pointedly suggested 2,000 ought to be enough. A compromise limit of 7,500 was decided on, and even it has not been reached.

Police incidents are comparatively few.

The sight of foreign military uniforms hanging around street corners could make people think they're "occupied". So airmen dress in civies when they go into town.

The General on a Bike Maj. Gen. Archie J. Old Jr., commander of the U. S. Fifth Air Division, can be seen wearing shorts and pedaling a bicycle when he shops in Rabat.

Another usual "occupation" sore point is the inflationary impact on the national economy when Americans spend.

The French enforce two protective rules: Local labor for air bases must be French-screened and hired at prevailing Moroccan rates to prevent wages from skyrocketing. Airmen with families, who go house-hunting, must clear their selections through a U. S. French rental board. This tends to stabilize rents.

As the United States pours 100 million dollars a year into its five-base program, Morocco hasn't seemed so rich since it belonged to the Roman Empire.

THE COMICS FANS—Al Capp, creator of LI'l Abner, and Dood of Mark Trail and other comic strip artists have a way of creating characters that elicit the full measure of devotion from their readers.

The characters are always in difficulties, as you may note. They have more dramatic moments than a soap opera. Life is never smooth, but filled with problems amusing, exciting, and shocking.

Sometimes the comics fans become so deeply interested in the fiction that they closely identify themselves with their favorite comic strip characters. A letter received recently by the Daily Press for forwarding to Al Capp is an example:

"Dear Mr. Capp:
"I got married when Daisy Mae and LI'l Abner did and I have had my baby. Daisy Mae should be having her baby pretty soon.
"It's about time for the baby to come.
"My baby is a boy. Wonder what Daisy Mae's baby will be?
"Yours truly,
"A Reader"

The letter will be forwarded to Mr. Capp, and will no doubt warm the cockles of his artistic heart. No doubt he will see to it that Daisy Mae has twins—Doggatzen style.

NEW YORK VISIT—Mr. and Mrs. Richard Morenus, Sioux Falls, S. D., former Escanaba residents, are visiting in New York. Morenus' old stamping ground.

Morenus will be remembered here as program director of radio station WDRC a few years ago and the author of magazine articles and more recently a book, "Crazy White Man." The story is of Morenus' adventures in the Canadian bush country.

Rand McNally of Chicago, publishers of "Crazy White Man", with Morenus' able assistance are plugging the book at every opportunity. The latest opportunity is the visit of Mr. and Mrs. Morenus to New York City, where they appeared on radio and television programs.

Before hiking off for a Canadian vacation that lasted for five years Morenus was a radio writer in New York City. A number of his plays were heard on the networks in recent years. Now as a "book author" he invades the big city from out west in Sioux Falls, where he is a radio station manager.

UNITED NATIONS—"We only had a couple hours to spend there," R. E. Allingham, 512 South 19th St., told me.

"There" was the United Nations building, which Mr. and Mrs. Allingham visited on a recent trip to New York. They were deeply impressed with what they saw and brought away with them the conviction that here was the center of world hopes for peace and justice.

Mr. Allingham also brought home with him a booklet presenting the basic facts about the United Nations. You will be interested in the opening paragraphs of the Preamble to the United Nations Charter:

"We The People of the United Nations determined to save succeeding generations from the scourge of war, which twice in our lifetime has brought untold sorrow to mankind, and to reaffirm faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and worth of the human person, in the equal rights of men and women and of nations large and small, and to establish conditions under which justice and respect for the obligations arising from treaties and other sources of international law can be maintained.

EXPLANATION—Following a recent informal meeting of the Escanaba City Council with officials of Mead Corporation in a discussion of this area's electric power problem, we talked briefly with H. E. Whitaker, Mead Corporation president.

We asked him if he would describe the expansion program at Escanaba Paper Company plant planned by Mead Corporation, which is connected with the necessity to find a new source of electric power for Mead's present power customers—including the cities of Escanaba and Gladstone.

"No definite or detailed announcement can be made at this time," said Whitaker. "We do not want to announce plans that may have to be changed, or to arouse hopes that may not be fulfilled. But the expansion is planned and will go forward when a solution is found to the power question."

Surgery Best for Hiatus Hernia; Operations Are Highly Successful

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. — Written for NEA Service

A particularly interesting subject is brought up in today's first letter.

Q—Please discuss hiatus hernia. Will it eventually take my sister's life?

Mrs. J. L.

A—Readers of this column already know that ruptures or hernias are most likely to occur in places where the muscular wall, which is supposed to keep certain organs in place, is particularly weak. One such place is in the muscular diaphragm, which separates the chest from the abdomen at the point where the digestive tract—in this instance the esophagus—passes through the diaphragm. Rupture, when it occurs here, is called hiatus hernia.

Hiatus hernia is most common as an in-born or congenital affliction or as the result of injury. Its symptoms vary but may closely resemble those of an ulcer of the stomach. Some physicians recommend that in mild cases it be treated medically, but general surgery is the best form of treatment, as it is for most other ruptures. It is generally a highly successful operation. The condition should not take the life of Mrs. L's sister, providing she has proper treatment.

Q—I was under the impression that S. was curable. Has some vitamin been found to help this condition?

H. S.

A—Scurvy is likely to be a chronic, may be a recurring disease and there is no treatment that brings about a cure in all cases. Treatment is variable from person to person but ordinarily consists of a good diet, rich in animal proteins and vitamins, and low in fats and starches. Frequently liver extract or vitamin B12 are given by injection, and another vitamin-like substance known as folic acid may also be given by injection or by mouth. The disease is fortunately rather rare in North America.

Q—I have trouble keeping my legs still. It bothers me and keeps me awake nights. Would you discuss this?

Mrs. C. R.
A—This condition could be what has been called "restless legs." According to published reports in the Journal of the American Medical Association, the most characteristic symptoms are a feeling of weakness in the legs and a sensation of cold in the feet. Disturbance of sleep is common.

For relief, people move their feet continually or get up and move about. Massage has no effect. The unpleasant sensations appear only when the person is at rest, as in sleep or at the movies. The cause or causes is not understood. There is some reason to believe that the cause is in the nervous system, and other reasons to suggest circulatory disturbances.

Q—My three-year-old son cannot say a word, though his hearing is perfect and he understands everything that is said to him. Please advise.

Margaret.
A—If the child's hearing really is perfect the chances are that he could talk if he wanted to. Probably he will start suddenly and jabber away like anything. If he does not start soon, however, the problem should be taken up with the child's pediatrician.

Wild Mau Mau Raiders Kill 100

NAIROBI, Kenya, (AP)—Fanatic Mau Mau terrorists massacred at least 100 pro-British Kikuyu tribesmen, their wives and children in a wild raid at a village almost on the outskirts of Kenya's capital.

They also attacked a police station about 40 miles away, killing five Africans and releasing all prisoners from jail.

The village attack was the biggest yet by the Mau Mau in its campaign of terror aimed at driving white men out of this agriculturally rich British crown colony in East Africa. In the past year the terrorists have murdered nearly 300 persons.

Larie, a village 10 miles from Nairobi in the Kiambu reserve, was the scene of the big massacre. Officials gave this account:

About 40 Mau Mau raiders, disguised in black overcoats to resemble policemen, slipped into the village outskirts. They opened fire on unsuspecting police sentries, then put the torch to native huts.

Although many died in the flaming huts, others rushed out to escape the swiftly-spreading flames.

They were met by the Mau Mau raiders, who hacked the villagers to death with axes, knives and short swords. Pregnant women were disemboweled in front of their children. The attackers then slashed the children to death.

British soldiers arrived at the scene too late.

Outlook Dims For Fontanas' Bid For Aircraft Contract

IRON MOUNTAIN — Although the report is not final, the bid of the Fontana School of Aeronautics on a U. S. Air Force contract for the maintenance of 58 C-82 aircraft in Body Plant No. 2 of the former Ford plant here took an unfavorable turn yesterday morning when Col. Harley S. Jones, deputy director of production at Wright-Patterson Field, Dayton, Ohio, said he doubted the facilities here could be prepared for the work in time to meet production schedules.

Actually, the dissenting opinion was based on two specific factors:

1. That Body Plant No. 2 of the former Ford plant could not be rehabilitated (cleaned up and equipped) in time to meet Air Force production schedules.

2. That manpower, although available, could not be adequately indoctrinated in time to meet production schedules.

Mario and Joseph Fontana said today they will return to Washington when the hearing on the contract is resumed and, if necessary, will re-submit the terms of their bid. "This matter will not be concluded until the contract is awarded," they said, "and we will do everything possible to remain in the bidding."

Golf was played in the United States as early as 1779, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Busy Shipping At Soo Locks

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich. (P)—The 1952 navigation season was in full swing on the Great Lakes today.

About 25 freighters cleared the locks here over the weekend. About a dozen were heading through this morning.

Some were forced to anchor yesterday when northerly winds blew ice down from Lake Superior into Whitefish Bay above the locks. However, a switch in the wind later blew most of the ice out. Some ice remained but it was not regarded as a serious interference to navigation.

The first down-bound freighter, the Buckeye of the Columbia Transportation Co., Cleveland, passed here yesterday with a cargo of steel products bound for Saginaw.

Also cleared back down was the Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, Mohawk Transportation Co., Montreal, Que., carrying grain from Port Arthur, Ont. The Shaughnessy was the first boat of the 1953 season to clear the locks, last Thursday.

Require Permit For Burning On Hiawatha Forest Open Areas

Due to warm weather, the snow has almost disappeared in open grass areas. When this condition appears, burning permits are required to burn grass and brush in the Hiawatha National Forest, East of the Whitefish River.

These burning permits may be obtained at the Rapid River Ranger Station, the Stonington fire tower, which is now manned and being made ready for the task of fighting fires, and by Earl Kaiser of Ogontz.

Arthur O. Shafer, Rapid River Forest Ranger, cautions people to use care with fire in the grassy plains of Stonington and Whitefish because there are thousands of acres of young Norway and Jack pine planted in that area, and a grass fire could cause severe damage to these young trees.

Man Tries Suicide After Killing Wife

HOLLY, Mich. (P)—Despondent over his failure to have a job, a 64-year-old man is a police prisoner in Pontiac General Hospital today after two attempts at suicide led to the discovery of the fatal shooting of his wife.

Police were summoned to the home of Walter Covert, an unemployed piano factory worker, here yesterday. They found Covert with slashed wrists and a pistol wound in his head. And on a bed lay the shotgun-bladed body of his wife, Minnie, also 64.

Police said that a son, Lyle, of Davisburg, was summoned to the home yesterday by his father. Lyle said he found his mother dead.

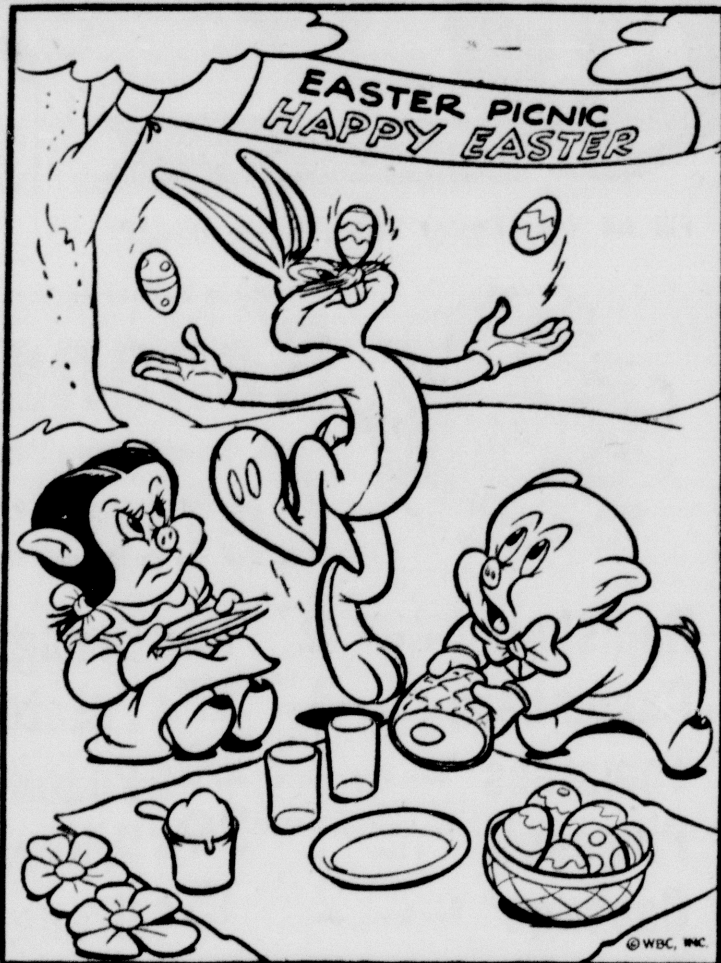

The husband, according to police, admitted that he had shot his wife Friday as she slept.

submerged lands, even if the act is challenged in the courts and the title sections are held unconstitutional.

Authorizes State Taxes

3. Authorize the secretary of the interior to develop the mineral resources in the outer continental shelf beyond the states' seaward boundaries.

4. Authorize the states to impose severance or production taxes on oil and gas produced in the outer continental shelf, and police and enforce their own conservation laws in the area. The states would not get any of the revenues from the production in the area.

5. Authorize mineral leases in the outer continental shelf, by the interior secretary, with leases going to the bidder offering the highest cash bonus. A minimum 12½ per cent royalty on production is reserved for the government.

6. Provide for return of money, which has been held in escrow since the Supreme Court decisions to the states where it was earned. Revenues from operations in the outer continental shelf, held in escrow, would go into the Federal Treasury.

Some officials have said the Reds may want to revive the talks to pin down Allied troops in idleness again, and as a means of trying to sow disunity in the West.

Much of Western wariness hangs on whether the Communists insist on tying together the POW exchange and the truce talks.

The Reds are waving a new bait before the West on prisoner exchange matters—an indirect acceptance of a form of voluntary repatriation.

When the armistice talks died, the U. N. demand for voluntary repatriation was the only remaining obstacle.

It broke up the talks. The Communists have made no such concession.

But, they appear willing to trade the sick and wounded under Article 109 of the Geneva Convention, which gives these men a choice of going home or staying while hostilities continue.

Although limited, it is at least a partial recognition by the Reds of the voluntary principle.

Wells Twp. Votes Tuesday On School Bonding Question

The question of bonding the Wells township School District for $100,000 to build a new school at Wells and an addition at the Soo Hill school will go before the voters tomorrow.

Polls will be open at 10 a. m. and will close at 8 p. m. in the usual polling place in Wells.

The $100,000 will pay part of the costs of supplying buildings to alleviate the present overcrowding in the classrooms. Accumulated reserves will pay the remainder of the cost of the building program.

It is proposed to retire the bonds within nine years by a levy of 4 mills.

The new school proposed to be built at Wells will have six rooms and will replace a frame building that is both old and inadequate. The Soo Hill school will be provided with an addition containing three classrooms.

The need for more classroom space is indicated, said Supt. Lawrence E. Klug, by the fact that at present both kindergarten and first grade classes are attending school on a half-day basis.

Order $50 Fine For Intoxicated Driving

Duane C. Hoffman, 21, of 613 Dakota Ave., Gladstone, today pleaded guilty in Justice Henry Ranguette's court to a charge of driving while under the influence of intoxicants and was ordered to pay a fine of $50 and costs. His operator's license was suspended.

Escanaba police arrested Hoffman at 3:10 a. m. Sunday in the 1200 block, Washington Ave.

The officers reported that Hoffman's car was traveling a weaving course and almost collided with the police patrol car.

Yesterday Hoffman posted a $75 bond for his appearance today to answer to the charge of driving under the influence of intoxicants.

Spiritual Diary For Lent

By prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be known unto God.—Philippians 4:6.

Reader, if you are in any trouble, try whether God will not help you; if you are in no need, why should you ask questions about prayer? True, he knows little of himself who does not know that he is wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked; but until he begins at least to suspect a need, how can he pray? —George MacDonald

TODAY'S MESSAGE

Good delights to "give good things to those who ask Him," and yet many question the necessity or reason for asking of God, since He knows all things beforehand and certainly understands the needs of His children. His heart is not hardened, as many suggest, by the constant pleading of the suppliant, but rather He reminds His own, "Ye have not because ye ask not."

Since God loves deeply and compellingly, each time He meets the need of His child it is with a gift of love. No love-gift can be divorced from the love of the giver; "the gift without the giver is bare"—so with each answer to prayer God gives Himself to His asking, needy child. Reader, when you ask of God, when you pray for Him to meet your need, then you know exactly from whence the answer comes. Soon you will recognize that "in Him we find all things."

Communion with God is the soul's greatest need; the prayer of asking is the beginning of that communion, and some need prompts the asking. So come to Him with your needs, ask of Him with grateful and expectant heart; and find a growing sense of fellowship with Him and a peace within your soul. —ALGER WAGNER GEARY, Greenwood Baptist Church, Brooklyn, N. Y.

TODAY'S PRAYER

Gracious Heavenly Father, teach us all the facets of Thy everlasting love made plain through Jesus Christ, Thy Son. Help us to submit our cares to Thee that we may know Thee better and love Thee more. Amen.

Greece To Ban Shipments For Red Countries

retary of defense.

Independent Action

McCarthy said Saturday that his agreement, negotiated without consultation with the Eisenhower administration, provided that the Greek ship owners would not "carry cargoes of any type from one Communist port to another in any part of the world."

The Greek government's action, as reported here, was understood to apply only to ships flying the Greek flag. Officials said the Greek government could take no action against vessels owned by Greeks but operating under the flags of other countries.

McCarthy said that of the 242 ships involved in his committee's action, 51 fly the Greek flag, 88 the Panamanian, 52 the Liberian, 34 the Canadian and 17 the British.

Since the U. S. Constitution makes the President responsible for the conduct of foreign affairs, McCarthy's move raised a constitutional question. It was not clear whether a senatorial subcommittee, in bypassing the executive branch of government to negotiate an agreement with foreigners, had infringed upon this presidential prerogative.

Adult School Of Religion Weekly Class This Evening

The regular weekly meeting of the Adult School of Religion will be held tonight at 8 in the Bishop Baraga Room at St. Patrick's school.

This is the seventh in a series of eight lectures which have been held on successive Monday nights, with Father Charles Carmody of Garden as instructor.

This course of instruction has been sponsored under the Confraternity Section of the Escanaba Deanery of the Marquette Diocesan Council of Catholic Women. The public is invited to attend.

Dream Comes True With Appointment To Ride The '400s'

As a little girl in Ohio, Mrs. Margaret Yarwood used to watch the trains go by and wish that she could ride them all the time.

This week Mrs. Yarwood's childhood wish came true when the North Western Railway appointed her to a new and unique position. As a "special representative" she will ride the railway's "400s" and other through trains 90 per cent of her time to evaluate and improve train service with special attention to the "woman's point of view."

A young grandmother, Mrs. Yarwood is a veteran railroad woman and has been with the North Western for the past 17 years working as a clerk in the railway's pass bureau. In this capacity she has arranged millions of miles of rail travel for employees and acquired a thorough knowledge of the railway's passenger service.

J. E. Goodwin, vice president in charge of operations, said that each time Mrs. Yarwood boards a train her duties will be to check the whole train from a woman's point of view, working with conductors, dining car stewards, waiters, porters, chefs, and all other personnel concerned with service to the public on trains. She will recommend any changes, improvements, or refinements of service that will benefit the passenger.

Known as "Marge" to hundreds of North Westerners throughout the railway system, Mrs. Yarwood is looking forward to her first trip on her new work.

One Gal Among 7,000 Sailors Is Life Of Lt. Marge

NORMAN, Okla. (P)—The best deal in the whole Navy? Lt. Maggie Cason of Portales, N. M., thinks she has it.

As the only Wave at the Norman Air Technical Training Center, she has 7,000 sailors all to herself. That's discounting the married ones, of course.

But does she take advantage of this woman's paradise? No. It isn't for lack of date opportunities, however. To the many would-be swains she has the classic reply of all gals who aren't willing.

"I'm Busy

"I just say I'm busy," she explains. Lt. Cason, as the sailors must call her, is the center education officer. And if being the only Wave among the multitude of lonesome men weren't enough, the sailors have still another reason for trying to woo her.

When tests for promotions come up, who do you think is in charge? Maggie, that's who.

She seems to have a way of wangling these deals. When she was recalled from the reserve in May, 1951, Maggie was the only Wave officer at the Atlantic City, N. J., Naval Air Station.

There was some competition, though, from 50 enlisted Waves whom she commanded.

In such a situation, the interesting question of where Maggie is quartered arises. Particularly since Uncle Sam didn't have women in mind when he built this base in World War II.

The Navy solves this problem by safely segregating its lady officer in an apartment in town.

Living off the base, she says, it's hardly like being in service at all. "I live like a civilian when I'm off duty."

These off-duty hours are spent with other civilians, although the sailors never stop trying.

Essay Stresses Need For Peace

The necessity of building a lasting peace is the challenge to American democracy emphasized in the prize-winning essay of Betty Nickerson of Germfask, Manistique high school senior.

Betty's theme was accorded first place in a VFW Auxiliary essay contest conducted during the winter among local high school students. It will be entered in state competition.

Text of the essay follows:

Democracy Is What We Make It
Our country is now engaged in one of the greatest struggles in our history. We are not only engaged in actual combat, but we are also fighting a cold war against a system of government which is threatening to overthrow our democratic principles of life. All America should be united in a single purpose. That purpose is to win a victory that will provide us with the means to build a world where we can live in peace and security.

Face Two Ordeals

Two ordeals lie before us. First we must defeat the enemy on the battlefield. But the second ordeal will be a far more difficult undertaking. We must build a lasting peace. Military victory alone cannot give us peace!

There should be as much preparedness for peace as there is for war. To prepare for peace we must deal with the intangible things in life. We must set up economical, political, intellectual, and moral standards in the world which will produce and hold peace.

If we are to do a better job of making a lasting peace this time than we did after the first and second world wars, we must develop intelligent public interest and discussion which will produce more and better ideas toward producing that peace.

Must Understand Principles

This must be our goal today. We must strive to understand the principles which make our country the strongest in the world, for we are destined to be the leaders in a free and democratic world.

Our nation has been in existence for one hundred and seventy six years. Only once in all that time has there been any dissension among our people and that dissension was not because we disagreed about the standard beliefs of our government but because we disagreed on racial principles. We fought a Civil War and united once more to become the strongest nation in the world. What other country has such a peaceful political history? We can well be proud of our accomplishments.

Must Build Like Forefathers

We must build world peace in much the same way as our forefathers built our nation. We must not only declare our intentions but we must also lay a firm foundation for world peace to be built upon. The firmest block in that foundation will be the people of this country. For we must be the teachers to instill in the foreign peoples of this world those standards which will be so important in bringing about complete understanding among them.

As a citizen of this great nation, each of us has a responsibility. Our birthright insures us of certain inalienable rights. It provides you with the right to express our thoughts, to vote for the men who hold political offices, and to worship in the way you feel is right. Are you using these rights to the best advantage?

Must Set Example

To be the teachers and leaders in a free world we must be such a perfect example that even the most pessimistic critic could find no flaw. It is our duty to raise our own political, economical, and intellectual standards to the highest possible degree.

However, not only political solutions will produce peace unless they are accompanied by a return to something better than a belief in material well-being—a return to faith in higher things.

The ordeal of winning the battle in Korea will be won with men, guns, ships, tanks, and money, but then will come the task of winning the goodwill of all men. The minds of men are far more difficult to fathom than material things. It will take a great deal of diplomacy. But having set our hand to the task, we must not stop until lasting peace has been made.

To contribute to that end should be the desire of each of us. Democracy is only what we make it.

When Mt. Katmai in Alaska exploded in a 1912 eruption, volcanic ash was carried at least 900 miles, says the National Geographic Society.

Dads Club Will Elect Staff At Meeting Tonight

Girl Slides 10 Stories Down Television Cable

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A 17-year-old girl, June Dolores Morales, slid 10 stories from the roof of a department store on a heavy rubber-encased television cable and suffered only minor friction burns.

She landed on the roof of an adjacent one-story building. Police said she was hysterical and screamed: "My sister told me to drop dead."

The girl refused to identify herself until after sedatives had been administered. She was taken to the psychopathic ward of General Hospital for observation.

Evangelist To Hold Services

Dr. A. T. Tomshany, D. D., evangelist, will conduct services at the First Baptist church here from April 1 to 12, inclusive, it is announced by the Rev. A. Barton Brown, pastor.

Services will be held at 7:30 in the evening except Saturday. Sunday services are scheduled for 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Mrs. Tomshany, who is part of the gospel team, presides at the piano during services and also gives messages to various women's groups.

"I was born in three countries of the old world; chose my name, my country and my religion." These are the claims made by Dr. Tomshany. His name change is understandable when it is known that his name originally was Aladar Kalman Janos Tomcsanyi de Tomcasanyi.

As an evangelist he has conducted over 100 campaigns in the past seven years, including several for union church groups. In one union meeting over 34 churches were represented.

Prior to becoming an evangelist, Dr. Tomshany was pastor of some of the leading churches of the Presbyterian denomination. Among other things he organized and conducted a Bible class of 500 men in Bay City and one of over 1,000 in Battle Creek. He is an author, composer, lecturer, musician and preacher of national reputation.

One of the attractive features of the evangelistic services here will be cimbalom music. The cimbalom is a rare musical instrument which Dr. Tomshany brought with him from Europe. It is a combination of a harp and piano and is manipulated with two mallets.

Vacation Inquiries Still Arriving At Unprecedented Rate

Resort inquiries are continuing to pour into the office of the Top O' Lake Michigan Chamber of Commerce at an unprecedented rate, it was revealed Saturday by Fred D. Heltman, chamber secretary.

"Unless all signs fail we can look forward to a tremendous rush of visitors this summer," Heltman said.

Every person writing to the chamber about tourist accommodations and local attractions is sent a folder and a letter. Heltman said. Lists of persons making inquiries are periodically prepared and distributed to various resorts in this area so that they may follow up the inquiries and make direct contact with the prospective summer visitor, he pointed out.

Last year's folders are still being used, Heltman said. New folders are in the process of final preparation and are expected soon from the printer.

Name Boddy And McNamara To All-U. P. Class B Team

Fred Boddy, Escanaba's superb court general, was named to the 1953 all-U. P. Class B basketball team selected by the Upper Peninsula Sports Writers Association at its annual spring meeting here Saturday.

Boddy joins Bob McNamara of Manistique, Bob Sharland of Ishpeming, Frank Gregory of Ironwood and Pat Gallagher of Iron River on the Class B honor team. The writers selected 15 other outstanding Upper Peninsula players for the honorable mention list in Class B.

The Association also named all-U. P. teams in Class C, D and E, an all-Class first and second team and the "coach of the year." The C, D and E selections will be announced tomorrow and the coach of the year and all-Class team on Wednesday.

All-Around Star

Boddy was an unanimous choice of sports writers for the Class B berth. He is a holdover from last year's team as is Sharland of the Ishpeming Hematites.

Seeing action at center, forward and guard for Coach Burt Gustafson's Eskimos, Boddy was rated as one of the best all-around players in U. P. high school circles this past season. He led Escanaba's offensive action with an average of 20 points per game for regular season and tournament play. He hit a total of 360 points in 18 games.

McNamara was the pivotman on Coach Rudy Brandstrom's powerful Manistique Emerald quint, the only team in the Upper Peninsula to finish the regular season undefeated. The Emeralds won 19 straight in the U. P. before losing to Ludington in the state tournament quarterfinals at Mt. Pleasant.

Emeralds Honored

McNamara was named the player of the year in football last season after leading the Emeralds to one of the best grid records in the Peninsula.

Manistique landed the other two members of the "big three" on the honorable mention list. Warren Wilson, high-scoring forward, and

Paul Hinkson, play-making guard, were the Emeralds placed on the honorable mention list.

Writers selected McNamara to represent the Manistique squad on the Class B team because of his excellent showing in tournament competition. All three Emeralds were considered for the coveted berth.

Sharland was the big gun in Ishpeming's lineup the past season. He scored 41 points against Escanaba to set a new individual Ishpeming scoring record early in the season. Sharland led Ishpeming's undefeated march through the regular season, but the Hematites were tripped by the Negaunee Miners in the first game of the district tournament.

All Are Seniors

Gregory, classy guard, was the top man in the Ironwood lineup as the Red Devils ran up one of the best Class B records above the Straits. Ironwood captured the district title but lost to Negaunee in the regional opener at Negaunee.

Gallagher was one of the all-time standouts on Coach Harry Monson's Iron River Redskins quint. He led the Redskins in the scoring department and was regarded as tops in the Menominee Range cage conference.

All players on the Class B team are seniors. The Sports Writers Association named the following players on the honorable mention list:

Bob Tiberg, Calumet; Tom Moreau, Gladstone; William Obst, Hancock; Bob Pozza, Iron Mountain; Bill Schultz, Kingsford; Hinkson and Wilson, Manistique; John Christopherson, Menominee; Gordon Farragh and Jim Simpson, Negaunee; John Leoffler, Newberry; Bill Mason, Soo; Stan Luczkowski, Stephenson and Carl Maki, Munising.

Writers Attending

Nine Association newspapers were represented at the meeting and application of the Manistique Tribune for membership was accepted by the group.

Writers attending were Bob Biolo, Jim Trethevey and Ken Lowe of the Marquette Mining Journal, Fr. David Spelatt of Our Sunday Visitor, Marquette; Herb Levine of the Soo Evening News, Monk Adams of the Houghton Mining Gazette, Gene Maki of the Wakefield News, Jim Ripley of the Menominee Herald Leader, Nap Rondeau of the Iron Mountain News, Gene Wodzinski of the Iron River Reporter, Lew Merwyn of the Manistique Pioneer Tribune, Ray Crandall and Ed McCarthy of the Escanaba Daily Press.

The Association incorporated one new basketball record into its list of all-time Upper Peninsula sports records. Mass bettered its own average points per game mark of 72.06 last season to 72.12 this season for regular season play.

In This Corner

With Ray Crandall

A person close to the high school sports picture in the Upper Peninsula took a whack at the U. P. Sports Writers Association the other night. First he asked us who was named the "coach of the year" in basketball. We answered that the Association had agreed to release the story on Wednesday and that members were pledged to secrecy until then. He replied that he already knew who it was (this was on Saturday night after the meeting here in Escanaba).

"I knew who was going to get the coach of the year honors this morning at 10 o'clock," he informed us. The Sports Writers Association didn't meet until 3 that afternoon. We asked him how he could possibly have known that when the writers themselves didn't even know it. "A sports writer from one of the other papers told a man on the telephone this morning," he stated.

Just to get this on record, we want to explain how wrong that person is in his thinking. The Upper Peninsula Sports Writers Association was represented by nine voting members at the meeting here Saturday. Their first order of business was selection of coach of the year. Six coaches were nominated for consideration by six different writers. Considerable discussion was heard concerning the merits of the nominees and then a written ballot was taken, with writers from Iron Mountain, Menominee, Marquette, Soo, Iron River, Wakefield, Houghton, Our Sunday Visitor and Escanaba voting. There was absolutely no way of knowing who would be selected before that vote was counted. Each paper had one vote only.

We personally would prefer to have released the stories on the coach of the year and the all-U. P. team selections today. . . . But the members agreed to space the stories out through Wednesday so that writers would have more time to prepare their stories, and so that all papers would have the same story on the coach of the year. The writer from whose territory the coach of the year was selected will do the story on that phase of the meeting and send it to all papers in the Upper Peninsula.

The person we talked to Saturday night also stated that he could go out for a half an hour and come back with the names of all the players selected on the All-U. P. Class B team. We don't know if he could do that or not, but he shouldn't be able to. Members of the Association are pledged to keep the selections absolutely confidential until they are released in the papers. . . . It is entirely possible, of course, that some writer would reveal the players who are honored. . . . But it isn't too likely.

FRED BODDY—Eskimo eager Fred Boddy represents the Escanaba High School quint on the all-Upper Peninsula Class B cage team announced today by the U. P. Sports Writers Association. Top scorer and floor general for the Eskimos, Boddy was the unanimous choice of the sports writers for a Class B berth along with Bob McNamara of Manistique, Bob Sharland of Ishpeming, Frank Gregory of Ironwood and Pat Gallagher of Iron River. Olson Brothers See Eddie Perform For Cleveland Ice Team

Five Olson brothers cheered on brother Eddie in the American Hockey League playoff game at Cleveland Saturday night and the league's leading scorer responded with a brilliant game as his mates turned in a 2-1 win over Syracuse.

Ted and Mark of Escanaba, Allan, Wesley and Roy of Marquette drove to Cleveland to see the semifinal series clash. Eddie Olson, first American-born player ever to win the league's scoring title (he finished with 86 points) was Cleveland's workhorse. He spelled off on penalties, played defense against Syracuse's power play and started on the first line at the opening of each period. He didn't score but started two of Cleveland's best offensive plays.

Al's Tavern Cops Class B Gold Medal Tournery Crown

Skinny's Loses In Semifinals

HERMANVILLE — Escanaba Al's Tavern, paced by star Doon Paulin, captured the Class B championship in the 15th annual Gold Medal basketball tournament here last night.

Al's quint whipped the Menominee Jorviks 87-69 in the championship game with Paulin racking up 31 points for the winners. In semifinal action yesterday afternoon Al's tripped the Powers-Spalding Legion quint 70-55 with Victor Zar setting a 16-point scoring pace.

The Escanaba Skinny's Bar quint dropped a thrilling 69-65 verdict to the Negaunee Eagles in a double overtime in the Class A semifinals Sunday afternoon.

Lead Throughout

Al's quint got away fast with a 13-10 lead in the first period of the championship game and led Menominee all the way. Paulin broke loose with 10 points in the second period and helped stretch Al's margin to 37-29 at the half. The Escanaba quint outscored Menominee in both the last two periods, in which Paulin hit 17 points and won with ease.

Paulin came out of the tournament with a hatful of honors accorded by tourney manager Frank Rodman. He was presented the Glen Fleetwood Sportsmanship trophy and his 31 points in the final game gave him the high single game scoring championship in Class B.

Billy Goats Win

The Green Bay Billy Goats copied the Class A crown by whaling the tired Negaunee Eagles 102-75 in the title tilt last night. Bucky Lindsey, Green Bay sparkplug, hit 34 points for the winners while Harold Trehwella tallied 25 for Negaunee.

Lindsey was awarded the Joe Rodman Memorial Trophy as the outstanding player of the tournament and he also drew the Marvys Fedrizzi Memorial trophy for scoring the most points in the tournament, 167.

tournament and Mickey Kuchenberg was named the top defensive player in Class A and the tournament.

Skinny's played the Eagles to a 62-62 tie in regulation time in the semifinals. Both teams scored two points in the first overtime and went into the second extra period tied 64-64.

St. Germain led Skinny's with 22 points on the scoreboard. Loss of

On the Class B all-tournament team were Paulin and Zar of Al's, Ray Wells of Powers, Johnny Moerchen and Ken Hofer of Menominee.

Crack Keglers Shoot For ABC Pin Records

CHICAGO (P)—A former ABC team champion and the highest scoring team in the east invade the ABC lanes today in quest of first place in the regular team division which is paced by Detroit's Pfeifer Beers with 3181.

Jimmie Smith's of South Bend, Ind., won the ABC title in 1949 and will be back hoping to repeat. On the same shift will be the Ferranti-Ballentine five of Scranton, Pa., which has the nation's highest three game total, 3526, this year.

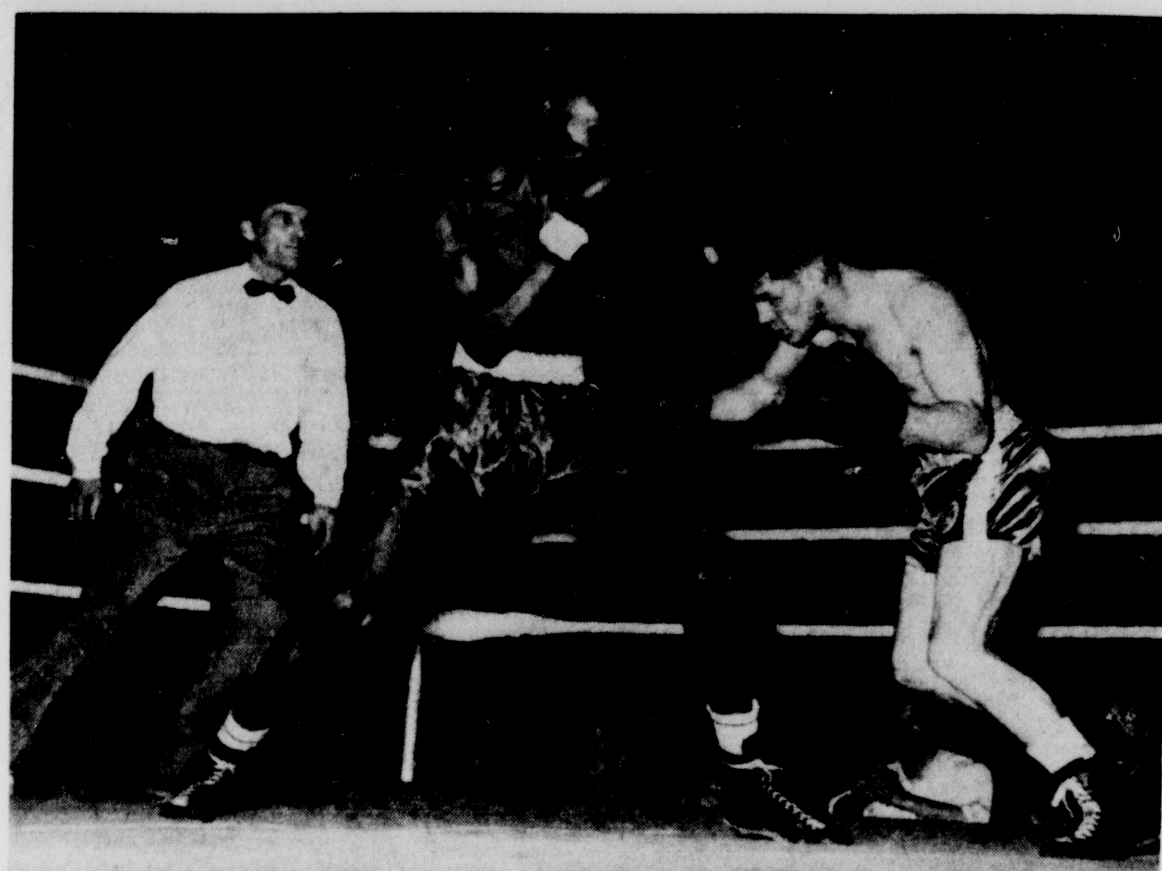

Sunday there were no changes in the team division.

Joseph Arnoldi, 33, an Iron Mountain, Mich., machine shop worker, fired a 693 series to move into a ninth place tie with Dr. M. Roder of Lansing Mich.

Rocky Marciano Is In 'Wonderful Shape'

HOLLAND — He a very weight Champion Rocky Marciano, trained down to what his manager described as "wonderful condition," took today off from training for his April 10 Chicago fight with the man from whom he won the title, Jersey Joe Walcott.

Marciano went five rounds with sparring partners Sunday, and when the stint was over, Manager Al Weil bubbled: "He's in wonderful condition. I'm real satisfied. He's punching harder than he ever did."

LANCOUR BORES IN—Harvard Lancour, classy Manistique featherweight, digs into flashy Pat McCray (left) of Milwaukee in the windup of the amateur boxing card at Manistique Saturday night. Lancour won a five-round split decision over the Milwaukee batt-

ler in one of the best bouts staged in the Upper Peninsula in recent years. Action was fast and heavy throughout the bout, with Lancour doing his best work inside the taller McCray's punches. Ben Wood of Manistique is the referee. (Linderth Photo)

Lancour Beats McCray In Amateur Mitt Show

MANISTIQUE—Golden Gloves featherweight champion Harvard Lancour climaxed a gold star amateur boxing show here Saturday night by whittling down lanky Pat McCray to win a five round split decision in the windup bout of the 12-fight program.

Lancour's opponent, a six-foot one and a half inch colored whip-lash, fought like a seasoned pro and extended the rugged Manistique scrapper all the way. The bout went five two-minute rounds.

Lancour's strongest round was the third in which he rocked McCray with potent over-hand rights to the head and hard hooks to the body. McCray countered with sharp left leads to the head, stinging rights and a two-handed body attack. But Lancour carried the bout and never stopped boring in on the lanky colored scrapper.

Selling Gets Win

In the semi-windup bout, Manistique's former welterweight Golden Gloves champion Francis Selling out-fought Milwaukeean Juray Mitchell in another close battle. Selling mixed a head and body attack to edge Mitchell in all three rounds by a narrow margin.

Little Jimmy Gould nearly stole the show with an impressive victory over Milwaukee's Marvin Givens at 118 pounds. The rugged Manistique fighter pounded Givens with hard rights and had his foe in serious trouble several times in the three-rounder.

An excellent supporting cast rounded out the preliminary bouts. Manistique's Harry Nelson scored the only knockout of the night over Bob Bourdeau of Escanaba in a flyweight bout. Bourdeau was leading on points midway in the second round when Nelson uncorked a fast flurry to floor the Escanaba boy for the count.

Ammann Beats Betts

In one of the best bouts on the card, Werner Ammann of Manistique gained a split decision win over U. P. and Wisconsin Golden Gloves flyweight champion Tommy Betts of Marquette at 112 pounds. Ammann moved in steadily and landed looping punches to offset sharp jabs and snappy right hands by Betts. It was a revenge win for the stocky Manistique boy who lost to Betts in the U. P. Golden Gloves finals in Escanaba last month.

Johnny Roberts of Escanaba used an effective right cross to whip Ernest Vertz of Manistique in a 125-pound battle that was well received by the large crowd. Making his first appearance in the squared circle, Roberts showed promise with his steady punching. The shorter Vertz connected with left hooks to the head but couldn't match Roberts' punching power.

Tommy Dufour of Manistique beat Iron Mountain's Dan Mariucci in a fast bantamweight fight. Mariucci carried a heavy right hand but failed to tag the fast-moving Dufour who piled up points with steady streams of punches in each round.

Aldrich Is Beaten

Ted Prudom of Negaunee decided to end Aldrich of Manistique in a middleweight clash. The Negaunee fighter tossed powerful hooks to edge the taller Aldrich whose right-hand shots slid over Prudom's bobbing head.

A pair of Escanaba boxers punched it out in a lightweight match with Ron Magnuson beating Ron Vanderlinden on the strength of a good second round in which he stung Vanderlinden with hard left crosses. Vanderlinden came back strong in the final round but couldn't overtake the southpaw's edge.

The show was sponsored by the Manistique CYO under the direction of Fr. George Pernaski. Referees working the bouts were Ben Wood of Manistique and Jimmy Fox of Milwaukee who manages the Milwaukee scrappers.

Bruins Stun Red Wings With Overtime Defeat

By JOE FALLS

BOSTON (P)—Only last week Tommy Ivan, coach of the Detroit Red Wings, said playoff hockey is different, not at all like during the regular season.

And last night, Ivan's Red Wings found out how true this is. They suffered another stunning defeat by the Boston Bruins, 2 to 1, and now trail the Beantowners in the Stanley Cup playoffs, two games to one.

Jack McIntyre's "sudden death" goal, at 12:29 of the first overtime period gave the Bruins their dramatic victory over the Wings and sent the sellout crowd of 13,909 into howling hysterics.

Were Highly Favored

When the playoffs started last week, the Wings were prohibitive favorites to trounce the Bruins—and many thought they'd do it in four straight games. The Wings had butchered Boston time after time during the season, rolling up scores like 10-1 and 10-2.

The first playoff game was a 7-0 runaway for Detroit. But Boston bounced back to take the second game, 5-3.

And last night in Boston Garden, it was the Bruins who skated and checked like champions. They fought for the puck like alley cats and bounced the Red Wings forwards off the boards like they were rubber balls.

Waiting For Break

In the second half of the game, the Bruins stayed back, waiting for a break. When it came, they made the most of it.

The Wings had just missed winning it when Johnny Wilson's short shot hit the post. The Bruins later broke out of their own zone, with McIntyre and Dave Creighton skating in on Bob Goldham, the lone Detroit defender.

Creighton fed McIntyre a pass and McIntyre let go with a backhand from about 12 feet out. It whistled right past Goalie Terry Sawchuk.

The crowd went wild and the Bruins mobbed McIntyre. It was his first goal against Detroit this year and his first goal against anybody since Feb. 24. He had gone scoreless in 20 straight games.

Boston Scores First

Ed Sandford had put Boston into a 1-0 lead in the first period. In that period, and for the first part of the second, the Bruins outthusted and outplayed the Wings.

Detroit couldn't get an attack going. The Bruins checked them closely and it wasn't until midway in the game that the Wings got their first decent shot at Sugar Jim Henry in the Boston goal.

Tony Leswick took that one, and scored. He picked up a pass from Red Kelly, and whirled in a five-foot backhand.

Count Fleet, the 1951 champion sire, is insured by Lloyds of London for $550,000.

Death Takes Jim Thorpe

LOS ANGELES (P)—The sports world today mourns the death of fabulous Jim Thorpe, acclaimed the greatest all-around athlete of the first half of this century.

The Oklahoma Indian—star of his day in football, track, field and big league baseball—died Saturday of a heart attack in his modest trailer home in suburban Lomita. Thorpe, 64, collapse while eating dinner with Patricia, his third wife.

As Thorpe's family and friends made funeral arrangements, not yet completed, fans recalled feats of the rugged Sac-Fox Indian who first won athletic renown at the Carlisle (Pa.) Indian Institute early in the century.

In the 1912 Olympic games at Stockholm he won both the decathlon and pentathlon. Sweden's King Gustav V told him: "Sir, you are the greatest athlete in the world."

He made Walter Camp's All-American team in 1911 and 1912 at Carlisle as a runner, kicker and passer. He played professional football and baseball for 16 years, six of them in the big leagues. He also had a go at basketball and other sports.

Three years ago, the nation's sports writers and broadcasters, in an Associated Press poll, voted him the outstanding male athlete of the first half of the 20 century.

John Martinac Lands All-State Cage Berth

John Martinac, Escanaba St. Joe guard, landed a first team berth on the all-State Class C basketball team announced today by the Detroit News.

Martinac, senior St. Joe Cager, was the only Upper Peninsula player named to the News Class C state team.

Named to the News all-state Class D team was sophomore Barry Mussatto, star Gwinn cager.

Experts Pick Indians And Giants For Flags

By ED CORRIGAN
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
If you want to take the word of the experts, the Cleveland Indians and the New York Giants are the teams that will win the major league pennants in the New York Yankees and the Brooklyn Dodgers falter.

The Indians this spring have been playing the kind of baseball one would expect of a pennant contender. But then, the Indians had many observers convinced they would take the Yankees last spring.

They always seem to look good in the training season. But there's always that one year that would be the one. Al Lopez' team now has won six in a row from major league opposition, including yesterday's 15-3 slaughter of the Giants. They also hold a 6-2 lead in the series with Leo Durocher's operatives.

Giants Are Rocky
The Giants, on the other hand, are fair game for the viewers with alarm. They've been playing poorly as the statistics will show. There's no need to go through the entire list. Suffice it to say they have lost their last five games and 10 of their last 12 against major league opposition.

And Durocher doesn't even have his lineup set. He still had Hank Thompson in center field yesterday, and it's pretty generally agreed that Hank can't make the grade. Bobby Hofman played second base and Davey Williams pinch hit.

The Giants pulled out of Phoenix today and they play the Indians in eight states before arriving at the Polo Grounds.

Durocher, who has been spending most of the spring denying that he was worried about the performance of the Giants, made no bones about being displeased with the barrage to which three of his pitchers were subjected. All Told, Al Corwin, Hoyt Wilhelm and Reuben Gomez were pounded for 17 hits, including two home runs, two triples and three doubles. They also gave up nine bases on balls.

Like World Series
The Dodgers and Yanks, meanwhile, went at each other as though the World Series were at stake in St. Petersburg, with the Brooks winning out, 1-0, to pull even in the exhibition series, 2-all. Johnny Podres and Joe Black held the world champions to five singles while Jim McDonald went all the way for the Yanks.

The Dodgers made only four hits and their one run came about in the second inning when Jackie Robinson walked, went to third on a double by George Shuba and scored when Roy Campanella grounded out.

The Detroit Tigers, who are playing like anything but tailenders, defeated the Boston Red Sox, 11-7, for their 11th victory against five defeats in Grapefruit League competition.

Jensen Hitting .407
The Washington Senators, with Jackie Jensen hitting a home run and two singles to raise his batting average to .407, defeated the Milwaukee Braves, 10-7.

It took an assist in the form of four errors, but the St. Louis Cardinals, who have been having their troubles all spring, stopped the Cincinnati Reds, 9-4.

Harry Byrd, who is trying to work his way out of the Philadelphia A's doghouse, took a step in the wrong direction when he went all the way against the Philadelphia Phils and was clubbed for a 10-7 loss.

The Chicago White Sox and St. Louis Browns divided a doubleheader. The Browns won the first, 6-4, on three runs in the ninth, while the Pale Hose, behind Tommy Byrnes' six-hit pitching, took the nightcap—a seven-inning affair—5-3.

NEW YORK (AP)—The Bronx bagel bandit has struck again. Yesterday — that makes three Thursdays in a row — a big bag of the baked dough-rings was missing from in front of Halper's drug store-luncheonette.

The deliveryman hangs the bagel bag on a doornail.

Manager Louis Cassano, who called police, grumbled:

"I suppose I ought to leave the bum some lox and cream cheese next week."

The Umpire

By BEANS REARDON

QUESTION: In a semi-professional game, the home team batter hit a long drive to left field. When the fielder had trouble retrieving the ball, the third-base coach waved the runner home. The fielder, however, made a good throw to the third baseman, who turned to relay home. The catcher, meanwhile, tried some strategy of his own. Before the third-base man threw the ball, the catcher jumped up and faked a catch, setting himself in front of the plate for a bogus tag on the runner. The runner, seeing he was going to be blocked, halted and started back to third, but was tagged out by the third baseman, who had kept the ball. The umpire allowed the runner to score. Was he right?

ANSWER: The rules clearly state that if a runner's progress is impeded by a defensive player who does not have the ball in his possession, the umpire shall rule it "obstruction" and the runner shall be allowed to advance to the base he was attempting to reach, which, in this case, was home plate.

Tigers Win To Climb Back To League Lead

LAKELAND (AP)—The Detroit Tigers are right back on top of the Grapefruit League standings and if they can whip the New York Yankees today they're likely to finish up the Florida exhibition season right there.

After the Yankees, the Tigers take on only one more major league club in Florida. They play the Philadelphia Athletics Tuesday and hang around another week before heading north, but compete only against "cousins" of the Detroit farm system.

The Tigers vaulted back to the top of the Grapefruit League Sunday with an 11-7 victory over the Boston Red Sox at Sarasota. It gave them an 11-5 record, good for a .688 percentage. The Brooklyn Dodgers are second with 14-7, good for .667, and the St. Louis Browns are third with 15-8, good for .652.

13 to 11 Hits

The Red Sox out-hit the Tigers 13-11, but the kind of hitting Manager Fred Hutchinson got from his Detroiters warmed his heart.

Jim Delsing and Russ Sullivan tripled and Owen Friend, John Baumgartner, Steve Souchock and Johnny Bucha doubled. And most of the blows came when they'd do the most good.

Besides, Big Walt Dropo slammed two long ones that went for outs, but which would have been homers in most American League parks.

Young Billy Hoelt, returning to the mound after a 17-day layoff because of arm trouble, gave up only two hits in three innings and was the winning pitcher.

Frank Lary, a rookie pulled up from Buffalo for the day, relieved Hoelt, but appeared to have a bad case of jitters. He was tagged for four hits and two runs in his first inning. A double play saved him even more embarrassment, but he got by the next three innings with only three hits.

Paul Foytack ran into trouble in the ninth as Boston tagged him for four hits and three runs, but the Tigers had iced the game long before that.

Detroit started off with a four-run first inning against Willard Nixon and added two more in the second, two in the fourth, one in the fifth and two more in the ninth.

Hutchinson named Ned Garver and Art Houtemier to oppose the Yanks, who have handed the Tigers two of their five defeats. Dick Marlowe and Hal Erickson will go against the Athletics tomorrow.

Dillard And Whitfield Chicago Relays Stars

CHICAGO (AP)—Harrison Dillard, 29, and Mal Whitfield, 28, are looking three years ahead when each plans to try for a third Olympic games championship in 1956.

Although reaching the age when the average white-collar worker is winding trying to catch a streetcar, these two athletes show no signs of slowing down.

"It's all in keeping in shape through rigorous training," they said Saturday night after becoming the first double winners in the Chicago Relays since 1947.

"Ready In 1956"

"Dillard and I will be ready for the Olympics again in 1956," added Whitfield.

Dillard won the Olympics dash title in 1948 and the hurdles at Helsinki last year. Whitfield took the 800 meter medal in those same years and set a record doing it. They shared honors before 16,762 fans in Chicago Stadium Saturday with high jumper Ken Wiener, former Marquette star, now a Navy lieutenant in the dental corps at Great Lakes, Ill., and pole vaulter Bob Richards, the orained minister now at LaVerne, Calif.

For the seventh successive year Dillard, former Baldwin-Wallace star, and now a public relations man in Cleveland, won the 60 yard high hurdles. His time was .07.3. He also took the 50 yard dash in .05.4.

Sets Meet Mark

Whitfield glided through the 600 yard run to win that event for the third straight time. He set a record of 1:09.7, erasing the meet mark of 1:10.8 by Herb McKinley of Illinois in 1946 and matched by Vilanova's George Guida in 1948.

The former Ohio State runner then cruised through the 1,000 yard race in 2:13.0, to beat defending champion Lawton Lamb, an Illinois alumnus.

Wiesner high jumped 6-10 1/4, topping his indoor world record of 6-9 1/2 accomplished at Milwaukee March 14. The old relays mark was 6-7.

Richards clearing 15 feet or better for the 45th time in his vaulting career, won his specialty with 15 feet 2 inches.

Youthful Negro Chases Robinson Off Of Second

By JACK HAND

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP)—The kid who chased Jackie Robinson off second base is a 24-year-old Negro from Nashville by the name of James (Junior) Gilliam, fresh from the Montreal farm.

In fact, Gilliam still is on the Montreal roster, pending final action by the Brooklyn brass. They want to be sure before they make their move.

Manager Charley Dressen is almost as sure as you can be at this stage of a spring training season.

Hitting Is Question

"If he continues as he has up to now, he's got to play second base," said Dressen. "Hitting is the only question. If he can hit .260, he can help us. He looks like a fine leadoff man."

Robinson, moved out of his regular job by Gilliam, has this to say about the newcomer:

"He can get balls that I can't touch any more. If he hits .275, I think the club will be strongest with him at second base. He is fast. He has a good arm. The only question to me is the double play man—yet."

Switch Hitter

Gilliam, a switch hitter, is getting his big chance after only two years of organized ball—both at Montreal. Last year he hit .301 and was named the most valuable player in the International League. He isn't exactly a novice at the game, having played in the Negro leagues since 1945, when he was only 16.

"It seemed like I always was fooling around a ball park," he said. "Down home in Nashville, the kids always were hanging
